Interval Magic registered with county and city of San Diego

SAN DIEGO—April 1, 2011—Interval Magic today registered with San Diego County (FBN filing number 2011-009687) and the City of San Diego (certificate number B2011006911).

Owned and operated by San Diego magician Tom Interval, the business's services include close-up and stand-up magic performances and training for private and corporate clients.

Interval, whose hometown is Pittsburgh, began performing magic part time there in 1978 and officially named the business Interval Magic in 2003 with the introduction of his first website. Over the years, he has performed professionally and semiprofessionally but ultimately decided to make magic his life's work after moving to San Diego in 2009.
